THE STEAM TEAM

Thomas the Tank Engine and his friends are all Really Useful Engines on the Island of Sodor.

Thomas

They're 2, they're 4, they're 6, they're 8,

Shunting trucks and hauling freight.

Red and green and brown and blue.

They're the Really Useful Crew.

All with different roles to play.

Round Tidmouth Sheds or far away.

Down the hills and round the bends.

James

Thomas and his friends.

Gordon

Percy

Emily

Thomas, he's the cheeky one,

James is vain but lots of fun.

Percy pulls the mail on time,

Gordon thunders down the line.

Emily really knows her stuff,

Henry

Henry toots and huffs and puffs.

Edward wants to help and share,

Toby, well, let's say, he's square.

Storytime: The Perfect Gift

It was nearly Christmas on the Island of Sodor, and all the engines were very busy.

Percy worked hard delivering Christmas trees and the extra post. He also had all his regular jobs, such as taking scrap to the Scrap Yard. It wasn't quite as special as carrying Christmas trees, but it was still very important.

“Hello, Reg!” Percy called as he chuffed into the Scrap Yard.

Reg was very happy to see Percy. “What lovely scrap you’ve brought me!” he said. He couldn’t wait to start sorting it!

Percy looked around. The rest of the Island was twinkly and bright, but the Scrap Yard was dark and gloomy.

Percy worried that Reg was missing out on the magic of Christmas!

That afternoon, Percy spoke to Thomas.
"Tidmouth Sheds looks lovely and magical,
but Reg doesn't have any decorations at all.
Not even a bauble!"

"Poor Reg," Thomas agreed. "You should take him some decorations to cheer up
the Scrap Yard."

Percy found a small Christmas tree for Reg.
He couldn't wait to see Reg's face!

Percy carried the tree all the way to the Scrap Yard. "I've brought you a special gift, Reg," he said.

"Ooh, look, another old tree!" said Reg.
"This will make good woodchips."

Before Percy could stop him, Reg picked up the tree and fed it to the wood chipper! Whirrr! Whirrr!

"Oh no!" cried Percy. "NOW how will I bring Christmas to the Scrap Yard?"

Percy felt very sad. The whole Island looked lovely and special, but Reg was stuck at the Scrap Yard without any Christmas cheer!

"What's the matter, Percy?" Reg asked.

"I'm sorry, Reg," Percy said. "I wanted to bring you something for Christmas."

But Reg just smiled. "You brought me the best gift of all. More lovely scrap! Do you want to see what I've made?"

Reg showed Percy a big pile of scrap ... in the shape of a giant Christmas tree!

"Wow! Your Christmas tree looks fantastic!" gasped Percy. "I never knew scrap could be beautiful!"

Reg had a gift for Percy, too! It was a Christmas star made from scrap. "Merry Christmas, Percy!" Reg said.

"Thank you, Reg," said Percy. "This is the nicest Christmas decoration ever!"

Decorations from Scrap

You can make your own Christmas decorations, too! Ask an adult to help you with the scissors.

Materials:

2 pieces of coloured paper

Glue

Scissors

Pencil

Decorating material

Step 1: Cut a triangle (roof) out of one piece of paper.

Ask an adult to help you with this!

Step 2: Glue the triangle onto the other piece of paper. You now have a house shape!

Step 3: Decorate your house with paper, sequins, stickers, bows, buttons or glitter.

Tip: Tie a piece of string on top, and then you can hang it on your tree!

Christmas Colouring

Storytime: Marion and the Dinosaurs

One day, Marion was digging to clear a site for some new sheds. "Have you dug up anything exciting, Marion?" asked Thomas, as he puffed by.

"Not yet," said Marion. "Do you remember when I dug up that dinosaur skeleton? Maybe this time I'll find a treasure chest!"

Just then, Marion's shovel hit something. "What's this?" she cried. But it was just a rusty metal bar.

Thomas continued on his way. He was delivering stones and plants to the Earl at Ulfstead Castle.

At the Castle, Millie and Stephen were waiting for a very important shipment from the Mainland. The Earl was planning a big surprise!

Thomas wondered what the surprise shipment could be.

That night, Marion heard a strange noise. She looked up and saw ... a dinosaur! Marion closed her eyes in fright. When she looked again, the dinosaur was gone.

The next morning, Marion thought it must have been a bad dream.

"Dinosaurs aren't around anymore," she told herself.

A little while later, Marion heard an engine coming up. She looked to see who it was, but instead she saw ... more dinosaurs!

“EeeeKKK!” screamed Marion, and she hurried away. She raced towards Ulfstead Castle, crying, “Help! The dinosaurs are chasing me!”

Millie and Stephen looked outside and saw ... dinosaurs! “Hurry, Marion!” gasped Millie.

“The dinosaurs are still coming!”

“Get inside!” called Stephen.

“And raise the drawbridge!”

The engines were all very frightened!

Just then, the Earl came out of his castle.
“The shipment has arrived!” he said. “It’s my dinosaur statues!”

“Dinosaur statues?” asked Marion.

“That must be the Special Delivery!” Millie and Stephen said together.

So Marion crept outside. There was Sampson, carrying dinosaurs on his flatbeds.

“Don’t be frightened!” the Earl said cheerfully.
“The dinosaurs aren’t real!”

"I'm building a Dinosaur Park," the Earl explained. "So people can see what these magnificent creatures once looked like."

Then the Earl asked Marion for her help. "Will you keep an eye out for any more dinosaur bones around the Island?"

"Oh yes!" said Marion. She loved digging and was very excited. She couldn't wait to get started!

Storytime: Timothy and the Rainbow Truck

Bill and Ben loved to play tricks on other engines. One morning, they decided to play a joke on Timothy.

"We've lost a very important rainbow truck," said Bill. "Can you help us find it?"

"It's red, and orange, and yellow, and green, and blue, and indigo, and violet," added Ben.

So Timothy set off to look. He didn't know it was just a joke!

Timothy saw lots of colours on the Island of Sodor. There were colourful Kites, a pretty parrot and even a lady in a rainbow dress. But he couldn't find a rainbow truck.

"Can you help me?" Timothy asked Thomas.

"Bill and Ben have lost an important rainbow truck."

Thomas thought Bill and Ben were up to their usual tricks. But Timothy was determined to find the truck!

Then Timothy went down to the Docks. "I'm looking for an important truck," he told Cranky and Salty. "It's all the colours of the rainbow."

Cranky didn't know. But Salty did! He led Timothy to a truck full of rubbish. It was covered in paint splatters – red, and orange, and yellow, and green, and blue, and indigo, and violet!

“Yuck! An old waste truck!” Timothy said sadly.
“Thomas was right. Bill and Ben have played a trick on me!”

Then Salty had a very good idea. “If they asked for a rainbow truck, then maybe you SHOULD bring them a rainbow truck!
Whether they like it or not.”

So Timothy took the old waste truck full of smelly rubbish back to the Clay Pits.

"Hello, Bill! Hi, Ben!" called Timothy. "I've found your truck!"

Bill and Ben were very surprised. "But there is no rainbow truck," said Bill.

"It was just a joke!" said Ben.

Just then, The Fat Controller arrived. "Salty told me Bill and Ben were playing tricks again," he said.

"We're sorry," Bill and Ben said together.

"Your tricks have caused confusion and delay," said The Fat Controller. "Now you are on waste collection duty. Take this rainbow truck back now."

"Yuck," said Bill and Ben.

"I guess we found your rainbow truck after all," laughed Timothy.
